Notes to the statement of affairs as at 18 December 2014

- 1 The statement of affairs ignores the costs of insolvency
- 2 Section 176A of the Insolvency Act 1986 (the prescribed part) will not apply in this case as although there is a floating charge created after 15 September 2003 the secured creditor is not owed any monies
- 3 The cash in hands of accountants is monies held in the Redman Nichols Butler client account being book debts collected from the customers of the company
- 4 The stock, plant & machinery, fixtures & fittings etc have been inspected and valued by Gilbert Baitson, auctioneers and valuers of Hull and they have provided the estimated to realise amount. The book value is taken from the company accounts to 30 November 2013
- 5 A number of former customers owe money to the company, however many of the debts are old and disputed The liquidator will endeavour to collect monies
- 6 The position regarding the company's bank account is not known The account will be closed in due course
- 7 The inclusion of current creditors on the statement of affairs is as per the company's records. The claims of the creditors in the CVA have been listed after a payment to them of 10p in the £, a further payment from the CVA estate is antipated Claims of creditors will be subject to admission by the duly appointed liquidator in the usual way
