Notes to the statement of affairs as at 28 April 2015

- 1 The statement of affairs ignores the costs of insolvency
- 2 Section 176A of the Insolvency Act 1986 (the prescribed part) does not apply in this case as there is no floating charge created after 15 September 2003
- 3 The cash in hands of accountants is monies held in the Redman Nichols Butler client account, being funds transferred from the company's bank account. The bank account will be closed in due course and any balance paid to the liquidation estate
- 4 Gilbert Baitson, professional agents and valuers have sold two vehicles and hold the proceeds (net of costs of sale) The agents hold some tools and equipment and a computer which will be sold in due course
- 5 Two former customers owe monies in respect of work done by the company Settlement of one of the account is anticipated shortly
- 6 The H M Revenue and Customs claim has been included as uncertain The Company owes some VAT on returns which have previously been submitted The final VAT return which was submitted up to cessation showed a substantial refund.

It is likely that HMRC will apply crown set-off in respect of these amounts and the small balance due in respect of PAYE / NI

- 7 The inclusion of creditor balances on the statement of affairs are estimates based on the company's records. Claims of creditors will be subject to admission by the duly appointed liquidator in the usual way
